

Programme

Thursday 4 & Friday 5 May 2017

Thursday 4 May

12.30 - 13.30	Registration Coffee, Posters & Exhibitors	Pentland Auditorium
13.30 - 15.00	Joint Plenary Session for Medical Education and Medical Appraisal Chair: Professor Stewart Irvine, Medical Director, NHS Education for Scotland
13.30 - 13.40	Welcome & Introduction Dr Lindsay Burley CBE, Chair, NHS Education for Scotland
13.40 - 14.05	Improving Medical Education and Practice - An Overview of the GMC's Support for the Improvement of Medical Education and Practice in Scotland Dr Colin Melville, Director of Education and Standards, General Medical Council
14.05 - 14.30	Bridging Divides: Preparing Doctors for the 21st Century Professor Val Wass OBE, Head of the School of Medicine, Keele University
14.30 - 14.55	The UK Medical Education Database – Where From, Where Going and Why? Professor Jon Dowell, Director of ScotGEM Programme, University of Dundee
15.00 - 15.30	Coffee, Posters & Exhibitors	Cromdale Hall
15.30 - 17.00	Parallel Session 1 1. 'Seeing a Patient as a Patient...a more Holistic View of Medicine' Realistic Medicine: Longitudinal Immersive Clerkship - a Driver for Change 2. Performance Support - Identifying and Supporting the Trainee in Difficulty 3. Contractual Compliance: At What Cost? 4. Exploring an Innovative Approach to Solving Skill Decay in Remote and Rural Communities 5. Realistic Education: Undergraduate Medical Education within a Health and Social Care Integration Context 6. Duty of Candour - Constructive Analysis of Error in Learning and Improvement in Healthcare utilising Measurement & Monitoring of Safety Framework (MMSF) 7. Reaching and Teaching the Goldfish Generation – Using Technology to Rethink the way we Teach our Students
17.00 - 18.00	Facilitated Poster Session
18.45 - 23.00	Awards Ceremony & Dinner (Cash Bar Available)	Cromdale Hall

Friday 5 May

08.15 - 09.00

Registration
Coffee, Posters & Exhibitors

09.00 - 10.30

Parallel Session 2

8. Equality and Diversity in Healthcare Teaching: Supporting LGBT
9. Essentials of a Successful Medical Career Service: Why and How to Support our Trainees with Career Advice
10. Widening Access for Medicine – Overcoming the Challenges to Work Experience Provision for Medical Careers
11. Moving forward with the Medical Licensing Assessment
12. ‘Seeing the Wood from the Trees’: An Introduction to Teaching and Learning Clinical Reasoning Skills
13. Death and Dying: Competent to Care? Introducing an Approach to Support the Preparedness of Medical Staff to Manage Death, Dying and Bereavement
14. The UK Medical Education Database (UKMED) – What is it and How can it be Utilised?
15. Learners in Difficulty – Case Studies in Fitness to Practice
16. Professionalism and Excellence to Support the Delivery of Realistic Medicine in Scotland
17. Induction and clinical Mandatory Training; Perspectives from a 5 year Project of Improvement in the Pursuit of Excellence

10.30 - 11.00

Coffee, Posters & Exhibitors

Cromdale Hall

11.00 - 12.30

Medical Education Plenary Session Pentland Auditorium
Chairs: Professor William Reid, Postgraduate Dean Medicine,
NHS Education for Scotland and Professor Peter W Johnston,
Consultant Pathologist / Depute Postgraduate Dean, Aberdeen Royal
Infirmery

11.00 - 11.30

The NHS – Delivery, Leadership and Education
Mr Jim Mackey, Chief Executive, NHS Improvement

11.30 - 12.30

Five Oral Poster Presentations

How Good is your Learning Environment: Measuring UK Medical Students’ Perceptions of Different Learning Environments
Dr Ruby Roberts, Research Fellow, Centre for Healthcare Education & Research Innovation

The Development of a Behavioural Marker System to Assess the Non-Technical Skills of Medical Students in Acute Care - The Medi-StuNTS System
Dr Joanne Kerins, Core Medical Trainee, NHS Lothian

A Novel Method for Teaching ECGs: Learn by Drawing
Dr Mina N. Arsanious, University of Edinburgh

Not all Sunshine and Rainbows - Findings from a Qualitative Study of Newly Qualified Scottish Doctors Learning about 'Do Not Attempt CPR' Decisions

Dr Shaun Peter Qureshi, Clinical Fellow in Medical Education, University of Edinburgh / NHS Fife

Does the Mandatory Postgraduate UK Surgical Exam Predict Selection into Higher Specialty Training?

Professor Jennifer Cleland, Director, Scottish Medical Education Research Consortium (SMERC): John Simpson Chair of Medical Education Research, University of Aberdeen

12.30 - 13.45

Lunch, Posters & Exhibitors

Cromdale Hall

13.45 - 15.15

Parallel Session 3

- 18. Effective Debriefing in Clinical Practice
- 19. Embedding a Learning Culture through Provision of a Structured Mortality and Morbidity Review Process
- 20. General Practice Live – A Near Real Time e-GP Surgery Learning Experience for Undergraduate Medical Students
- 21. Medical Workforce Planning - Dark Art or Sharp Science
- 22. Service Design and Empathy Mapping – Tools to Support the Core Values of Realistic Medicine
- 23. Students as Change Agents: Facilitators and Barriers to Improving Care with Clinical Teams

15.15 - 16.00

Pentland Auditorium

Joint Plenary Session for Medical Education, Medical Appraisal, Practice Managers & Pharmacy

Chair: Professor Stewart Irvine, Medical Director, NHS Education for Scotland

Realising Realistic Medicine

Dr Catherine Calderwood, Chief Medical Officer, Scottish Government

Realising Realistic Medicine – the Pharmacy Contribution

Dr Rose Marie Parr, Chief Pharmaceutical Officer, Scottish Government

Tweeting? Use #NESSME17 and follow us @NHS_Education

Programme

Thursday 4 & Friday 5 May 2017

Edinburgh International Conference Centre

Thursday 4 May

12.30 - 13.30	Registration Coffee, Posters & Exhibitors	Pentland Auditorium
13.30 - 15.00	Joint Plenary Session for Medical Education and Medical Appraisal Chair: Professor Stewart Irvine, Medical Director, NHS Education for Scotland
13.30 - 13.40	Welcome & Introduction Dr Lindsay Burley CBE, Chair, NHS Education for Scotland
13.40 - 14.05	Improving Medical Education and Practice - An overview of the GMC's Support for the Improvement of Medical Education and Practice in Scotland Dr Colin Melville, Director of Education and Standards, General Medical Council
14.05 - 14.30	Bridging Divides: Preparing doctors for the 21st century Professor Val Wass OBE, Head of the School of Medicine, Keele University
14.30 - 14.55	The UK Medical Education Database – Where From, Where Going and Why? Professor Jon Dowell, Director ScotGEM Programme, University of Dundee
15.00 - 15.30	Coffee, Posters & Exhibitors	Cromdale Hall
15.30 - 17.00	Parallel Session 1 1. Negotiation Skills for Appraisers 2. Locum Doctor and SAS Grade Appraisal - Improving the Supporting Information 3. Tackling scepticism towards Appraisal and Revalidation 4. Supporting Doctors in Difficulty
17.00 - 18.00	Facilitated Poster Session
18.45 - 23.00	Awards Ceremony & Dinner (Cash Bar available)	Cromdale Hall

Friday 5 May

08.15 - 09.00

Registration
Coffee, Posters & Exhibitors

09.00 - 10.30

Parallel Session 2

- 5. Mindfulness Skills for Appraisers
- 6. 'Systems thinking' in Quality Improvement Activities
- 7. Unconscious Bias
- 8. Resilience Issues in Appraisees

10.30 - 11.00

Coffee, Posters & Exhibitors

Cromdale Hall

11.00 - 12.30

Medical Appraisal Plenary Session

Fintry Auditorium

"GMC Revalidation: Lessons Learned and Reflections for the Future"
Una Lane, Director of Registration and Revalidation, General Medical Council

12.30 - 13.45

Lunch, Posters & Exhibitors

Cromdale Hall

13.45 - 15.15

Parallel Session 3

- 9. Mindfulness Skills for Appraisers
- 10. 'Systems thinking' in Quality Improvement Activities
- 11. Unconscious Bias
- 12. Resilience Issues in Appraisees

Pentland Auditorium

15.15 - 16.00

Joint Plenary Session for Medical Education, Medical Appraisal, Practice Managers & Pharmacy

Chair: Professor Stewart Irvine, Medical Director, NHS Education for Scotland

Realising Realistic Medicine

Dr Catherine Calderwood, Chief Medical Officer, Scottish Government

Realising Realistic Medicine – the Pharmacy Contribution

Dr Rose Marie Parr, Chief Pharmaceutical Officer, Scottish Government

Tweeting? Use #NESSME17 and follow us
@NHS_Education